Award determination and notification:

The Hoosier Jewish Legend Awards Committee is an ad hoc committee of the Indiana Jewish Historical Society (IJHS).

All submissions are confidential, and nominees are not notified of the application submitted or its status unless it is successful. Submitters of applications will be notified of receipt of application and contacted again directly with the results. Qualified nomination forms remain active for 3 years from the original date of submission. Awards will be presented at the IJHS Hoosier Jewish Legends – A Hall of Fame annual program in August.

Award winners will be notified by June 1 each year.

NOTE: Judges are not members of the Legends committee or the IJHS Board. They are selected from the IJHS membership and/or representatives of the Jewish communities around the state.
